SUNSHINE GOLD

Marta Graciela García Lorea And Elida Beatriz Messina, With Sally Etherton Illustrated By Doug Nash

Sunshine Gold takes a learner-centred approach, providing contexts that will engage and entertain young children.

Lively, age-appropriate activities such as songs, role-play, games and puzzles will motivate children. All activities are carefully supported so that children feel successful and enjoy a sense of achievement in their learning. Emphasis is placed on functional language, which is meaningful and useful to children. Fun, child-centred puppet characters accompany children through each unit and help them feel safe and secure in their English classroom.

The content of Sunshine Gold promotes key values – these include an emphasis on cooperation and social interaction in the classroom and, through topics such as appreciation of self and others, being healthy, sharing and working together. Literacy skills are introduced gradually throughout the three levels of Sunshine Gold.

Developing pencil control, phonic skills and whole-word recognition underpin the approach to literacy. Throughout the course, oral skills precede and support the development of literacy skills.

BEBOP

Lorena Peimbert, Myriam Monterrubio

NEW

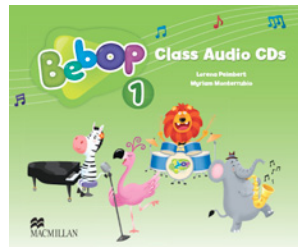

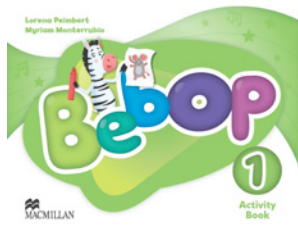

Developing language, academic, and physical development skills, Bebop takes a playful, multi-sensory approach to whole-child learning and motivation. Full of energy and music, the Bebop Band characters in the Storysong and the Action Song lessons help to bring the new language to life.

By exposing children to language in meaningful contexts through sight, sound, and motion, Bebop ensures young children are engaged, learning and – most importantly – having fun!

Key features:

- Music, action signs and language help children to learn English while engaging with different learning styles
- A strong literary strand includes storytelling through animated Storysongs
- Music, at the heart of the course, helps to create the optimum state for language learning and retention

GRAMMAR

GRAMMAR GOALS

Nicole Taylor, Michael Watts, Julie Tice, Dave Tucker, Angela Llanas, Libby Williams

Grammar Goals is a new six-level grammar series for children aged 6 to 12 years. It presents and practices grammar in lively and meaningful age-appropriate contexts that reflect students' real lives and interests. Linked to the Cambridge and Trinity external exam syllabuses, Grammar Goals offers regular exam-style practice tasks in the Student's Books.

The visually appealing nature of the course ensures that grammar is presented in a child-friendly format that keeps students actively involved in learning the language form, function, and meaning. The careful staging of the units provides three levels of challenge and success – bronze, silver and gold – helping students reflect on their progress and aim for higher goals.

Key Features

- Language is clearly contextualized with interactive grammar boxes to clarify meaning
- Carefully graded exercises (good for mixed-ability classes) build confidence and accuracy
- Development of critical thinking, learning to learn and social and interpersonal skills
- Writing syllabus covers sub-skills and varying text types, e.g. emails, descriptions, narratives, etc.
- Includes a testbuilder, grammar presentations, and alphabet and number support workshet

READING

STORY CENTRAL

Viv Lambert and Libby Williams and
Angela Llanas and Mo Choy

Critical thinking, critical literacy and storytelling are at the hub of this beautiful new six-level course. With a rich literacy strand the course exposes students to a variety of storytelling styles through the Reader. Students critically examine stories, working together to find meaning. Every chapter (unit) covers key language and includes a feature story, a grammar corner, CLIL content and a project lesson.

Each level contains a Student Book, a Reader to develop students' reading skills, and an Activity Book with CE:YL-style practice activities. Chapters are enriched with CLIL content from subjects such as social sciences, math and art, covering a broad base of topics ensuring students develop skills for life.

The Presentation Kit offers an extensive collection of video including American Sign Language Videos and Oral Storytelling Videos and Music Videos to enhance your lessons and help students to retain their learning. The Student's App consolidates vocabulary through highly motivating games.

SPEAKING

HAPPY CAMPERS

Angela Llanas and Libby Williams

Happy Campers puts practice and support at the centre of the course. Frontloading the unit language in the first four lessons provides students with more opportunities to practise all of the new language. Musicalised presentations build memory and hone listening and pronunciation skills as students echo, sing, and cheer their way through the units. The course is centred around clear, achievable goals that ensure students' encounter with English is a memorable one.

Happy Campers offers a unique range of components including a Flip Book with a Student Book and The Language Lodge (Workbook) on the reverse side. Songs, episodic comic strips and reading texts are shared over consecutive lessons, allowing students several opportunities to work with them. The Language Lodge provides traditional practice activities and self-assessment activities. The Skills Book focuses on further practice of language and productive and receptive skills including phonics work in earlier levels and thinking and spelling skills in the higher levels.

MACMILLAN NEXT MOVE

Amanda Cant, Marry Charrington, Viv Lambert

Macmillan Next Move provides a realistic context for language learning by bringing real aspects of the world into the child's life, showing that language learnt in the classroom relates to the child's immediate world and beyond. Through personalization and comparison, children develop cross-cultural awareness, and integrate new knowledge into their own experience to make language learning truly memorable.

Key Features:

- A highly adaptable program, with optional extension activities and digital components, offers flexibility to suit a wide range of class types and situations
- Unique unit openers give teachers a highly visual, emotionally engaging topic, with instructions in the Teacher's Book Pack on how to expand this into a full lesson
- The stories promote social values, helping children to broaden their civic education

TIGER TIME

Carol Read and Mark Ormerod

Tiger Time is a vibrant, six-level primary course based around different settings and characters which grow and change with the students, reflecting their evolving interests and needs.

Units contain humorous stories told through different genres, which use everyday language as well as catchy songs, chants and raps at the lower levels. Within each unit lessons are carefully structured focusing first on vocabulary, grammar and skills, and building to CLIL, culture and projects, allowing children to practise and consolidate their learning throughout the unit. Each unit ends with a review, encouraging active communication.

Written with classroom management in mind, activities are practical and well-staged. The accompanying Presentation Kit and Teacher's Resource Centre help teachers create dynamic lessons, which cater to diverse classroom situations. The Student's Resource Centre provides a home-school connection offering extra activities and support.

BRAINWAVE

Cheryl Pavlik, Andrea Harries

Brainwave is a media-rich primary series, offering a complete blended learning solution for the modern classroom, using both online and offline technology. The course takes into consideration the realities of the modern classroom and the needs of the busy teacher. Students are equipped with a range of materials, which provide the basis of their learning, both in class and at home.

Brainwave adopts the principles of Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL). Cross-curricular content is introduced through reading material, visual elements, creative project work and investigative tasks. These help to develop skills and understanding that enhance children's performance in other areas of the curriculum.

Brainwave, the generation of bright ideas.

Key features

- Works with Language Activity Book to provide theme-based lessons with structured language support
- Provides an in-depth exploration of the course methodology, along with ideas for differentiated instruction techniques and classroom procedures
- Includes a testbuilder, transition pack, wordsearch maker, extended interactive Teacher's Edition, spelling bee handbook, teacher development program

Online Resources

- The Homework Zone on the Student Website helps children to consolidate class work through automatically graded listening material, language games and interactive reading mazes
- Progress Journals give children the opportunity to reflect and self-assess while activities help them track their own progress in both language and skills development

MAGMILLAN SCIENCE

David Glover, Penny Glover

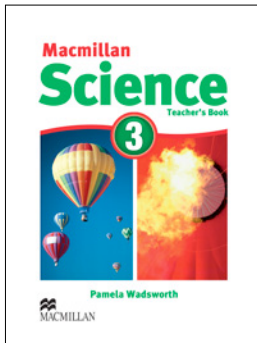

A carefully graded primary science course for 6-12 year olds.

Macmillan Science follows current best practice in science education and is written by leading authors of primary science resources in the UK. Through stimulating content and carefully graded activities and exercises, pupils are guided to develop a sound framework of scientific knowledge and understanding. Macmillan Science bridges the gap between mainstream curriculum teaching and CLIL (Content and Language Integrated Learning) or English-medium teaching with a course that can be used with confidence by all teachers.

Key features

- An investigative hands-on approach to learning through practical activities makes the lessons memorable and enjoyable
- The comprehensive syllabus ensures knowledge of the key areas is built up gradually and thoroughly
- Key word boxes highlight difficult vocabulary and a glossary encourages learner independence
- A CD-ROM for each level includes over 100 practice activities, as well as simulated experiments which allow pupils to try out things that are not possible in the classroom

MAGMILLAN TOPICS

Susan Holden

The Macmillan Topics series presents factual topics in a fun and interesting magazine-style format that motivates students to read in English. The cross-curricular nature of the series makes it easy to integrate school subjects with English language learning. Developing students' intercultural awareness with articles and projects, Macmillan Topics offers challenging insights into modern culture and asks students to compare other cultures with their own.

Key features

- The reader's personal experience is placed at the centre of the reading process
- The articles present a variety of text types, styles and formats
- Topics related to science, history and the arts provide specialized information and viewpoints
- A 'Check it Out' section provides a checklist of specialist language, plus useful websites

MACMILLAN NATURAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCE

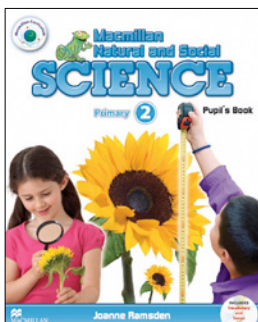

Paul Broadbent, Anne Broadbent

Macmillan Natural and Social Science is a six-level course for children studying science in English. The course develops children's knowledge of science, history and geography as well as providing systematic development of English language skills. All four skills of speaking, listening, reading and writing are introduced and built on.

Key features

- Children are introduced to scientific investigation skills by carrying out experiments, collecting evidence and recording their findings in charts or by drawing, labelling or writing results
- Content-based songs, raps, and stories contextualise the concepts

HELBLING YOUNG READERS LEVELS D & E

Helbling Young Readers is an exciting new series of graded readers for elementary schools in level D and E.

Engaging stories with beautiful full-colour illustrations, specially written to appeal to young learners of English, introduce high-frequency words in order to promote fluency from an early age. Each story is carefully graded and language is presented both as lexical groups and language functions.

Accompanying Interactive Whiteboard compatible CD-ROMs include a complete reading of the story, chants and games and link to the Young Readers website. All materials use an open type font which has been devised to help children with reading difficulties. All texts and recordings are in British English.

BEYOND SERIES

Rob Metcalf and Rebecca Robb Benne
and Robert Campbell

Beyond is a new six-level course for teenagers, with a focus on developing strong linguistic skills as well as teaching the wider strategies your students need to improve as language learners. Beyond follows a practical sub-skills syllabus, equipping students with strategies they can transfer to other areas of their education. The age-appropriate, 21st century life skills introduce a new dimension to language teaching. The life skills lessons ensure students not only develop academically, but also grow into considerate and confident individuals. The regular use of multimedia materials, class and homework activities on the Resource Centers ensures that your students are learning from a variety of sources. The Beyond Resource Centers are online spaces loaded with additional resources to support Beyond course material. Different Resources Centers are available for teachers and students.

THE PRINCIPLED COMMUNICATIVE APPROACH

Jane Arnold, Zoltán Dörnyei and Chaz Pugliese

The Principled Communicative Approach offers a fresh take on language teaching, based on cutting-edge research in psychology and linguistics.

The Principled Communicative Approach integrates scientific discoveries with the accumulated experience of classroom practitioners. In this book the three renowned authors propose seven key principles that underlie effective communicative teaching, and then illustrate these principles with 75 practical classroom activities.

The Principled Communicative Approach is a unique blend of theory embedded in practice, providing excellent resource material for the classroom that students will find motivating and very rewarding, but also useful information for teachers to keep up with the latest developments in the field.

THE RESOURCEFUL TEACHER SERIES

ENGLISH THROUGH ART

Peter Grundy, Hania Bociek and Kevin Parker

English through ART brings together 100 highly varied, original, ready-to-use activities to foster real communication in English through imaginative responses to both artistic images and easy-to-do creative work. A clear introduction explains how art can be used to stimulate language acquisition in a creative, enjoyable and memorable way and provides advice on how to get the very best out of this exceptional book.

English through ART is packed with great activities on using art:

- to stimulate talk
- to approach established activities in new ways
- to promote decision-making tasks in the language classroom
- to motivate learners to talk about themselves
- for vocabulary building and for writing activities.

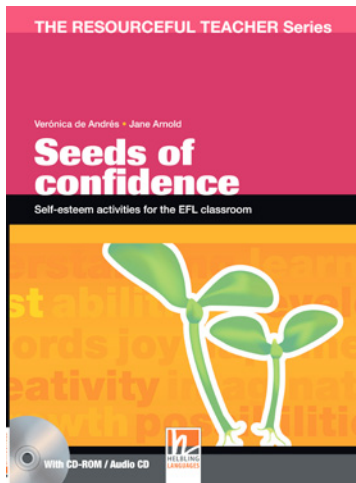

No prior knowledge of art or artists is required - even the most creative activities can be done by every student irrespective of their experience or background knowledge or ability.

English through ART comes with a time-saving CD-ROM containing 50 full-color reproductions from the National Museum and gallery of Wales to use alongside those activities that work best with images. The activities themselves can easily be adapted and used for different levels, from elementary to advanced, with teenagers, young adults and adults, in EFL/ESL, CLIL and Art and Design classes and for individual, small group and whole class work. Whether you need to pep your lessons up, stimulate your students, provide a sparkling 10 minutes at the end of the week or plan a truly engaging, term-length project, this is the book for you!

SEEDS OF CONFIDENCE

Verónica de Andrés & Jane Arnold

Seeds of Confidence presents current thinking on a very important aspect of the affective domain - self-esteem - and provides teachers with motivating, creative activities for use in the classroom to develop both language skills and learner confidence. As has been said, confidence leads to competence.

In Seeds of Confidence five essential components of self-esteem are covered: security, identity, belonging, purpose and competence. Many suggestions are given for dealing with each in the classroom and so creating a classroom climate in which real language learning can grow.

Using Seeds of Confidence in their classrooms, teachers can become more resourceful and can enhance their teaching practice and their own motivation. Many activities can also be adapted for use in teaching other subjects and in facilitating learning in all contexts.

Seeds of Confidence comes with a multimedia CD-ROM/Audio CD with worksheets, stories, poems, short videos, music and recordings of parts of the activities. It may be used on a computer and with a CD player.

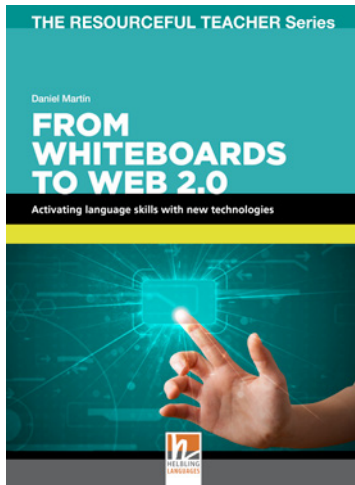

There are activities for all levels, from elementary to advanced.

MULTIPLE INTELLIGENCES IN EFL

Herbert Puchta & Mario Rinvolucri

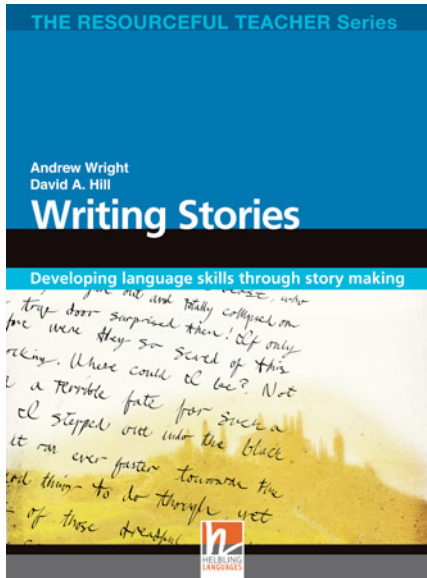

Multiple Intelligences in EFL gives a brief overview of the latest research into multiple intelligences relevant for EFL. It shows how you can enrich your own teaching by systematically activating other intelligences in your language lessons. Multiple Intelligences in EFL also demonstrates what you can do so that more students feel “addressed” in your class while helping you to appreciate otherwise hidden strengths in your students. This resource provides fun lessons for your students - through 99 clear and easy-to follow teaching recipes.

WRITING STORIES

Andrew Wright and David A. Hill

This is an exciting guide to writing stories, based on the basic assumption that storytelling is a fundamental need for all people of every age and in every society and that, as stories are mostly communicated by words, then story-making and sharing should be a fundamental part of all language learning experience.

Writing Stories is a resource book for teachers working with both teenagers and learners of lower intermediate language level upwards. The book includes short activities which help the students develop their story writing skills.

CREATIVE WRITING

Mario Rinvoluceri and Christine Frank

Creative Writing offers more than 80 inspiring activities to stimulate your students to want to write things down in English. Each lesson is based on 'real' writing – writing that conveys a meaningful message, either from the student to him- or herself or to a real recipient. This has two main benefits: first, it speeds learning, and second, it creates a real sense of enjoyment and fulfilment for your students.

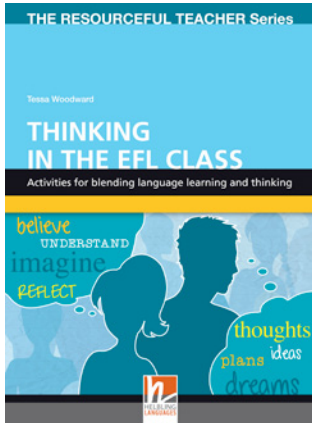

Creative Writing is packed with great writing ideas from providing practical help in producing exam answers to suggesting interesting new ways of telling stories. Plus there's a wide range of lesson plans that will be of value to you as an EFL teacher, whether you're fresh out of teacher-training college or have been teaching English successfully for 40 years. Creative Writing puts the fun back in writing, both for your students and for you and can be adapted for any level of students from beginner to advanced.

PRIMARY PICTURE DICTIONARY

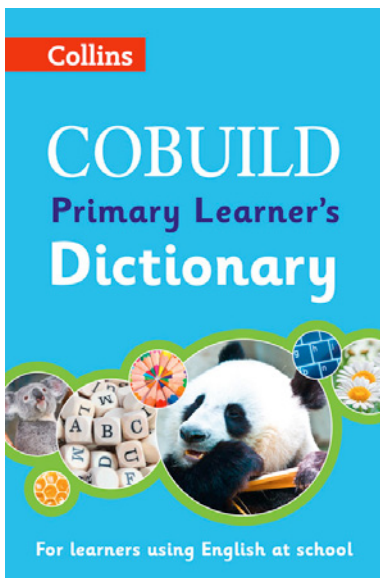

Illustrated by Janette Louder

The Primary Picture Dictionary is a beautifully illustrated dictionary of more than 600 key words for Primary students of English. It has been specially designed to appeal to young learners throughout the world.

The selection of lexical items has been made using Waystage, and is based on Garnet Education's extensive experience of producing materials for Primary education. The vocabulary is grouped in a number of broad themes, and low-frequency words have been avoided. Words have sometimes been included on the basis of association rather than strict categorization, since children do not always categorize items in the same way as adults.

There are two sections (Opposites and Verbs) at the back of the book that feature adjectives and verbs alphabetically. Comprehensive indexes at the back of the book help readers to locate words and serve as a useful tool for the teacher. Pronunciation guides are also included.
